Working experience:

Date	Working experience	Description of duties and activities
Since February 5 th 2007	Member of the State Commission for prevention of the Corruption, with a mandate of 5 years. The membership in the Commission is not a professional engagement which enables employment in another company or institution.	As a Member of the State Commission for Prevention of Corruption I give my contribution in improving the work of the institutions and the entire system, by participating in the decision making process on anti corruption issues. By fighting the corruption today, I believe that we are creating a better tomorrow for our children.

From 01.06.2003	Director of the company “Man Col” Skopje.	Being a Director of my own company gave me an opportunity to implement my extensive knowledge of the business sector into practice. The company has had 18 employees. The success of the company was based on the the vision and the team spirit that was created among the employees as well as the stable leadership structure on which they could always rely on. The termination of the company was due to personal reasons which have occurred in that time
From 01.09.1984 till 31.05. 2003	worked in the Skopje Fair as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Member of the Executive Board - Project manager of manifestations organized by the Skopje Fair or other - Manager of the Sector for Commerce - Independent marketing officer 	Being a Project manager of manifestations, my experience involves organization, planning, and realization of 21 fair manifestations (food fairs, agro-industry fairs, tobacco fairs, cosmetic fairs and etc.), 9 trade fairs, 7 international exhibitions, 5 award evaluations of wine and other alcoholic beverages, 11 concerts of pop music among which 3 humanitarian concerts, 2 New Year concerts with extensive program and many awards, 12 fashion shows, and 10 parties for the youth population.
Until 31.06.1984	- Professor of economic subjects in economic high school.	Being a professor in Economic High School, gave me the opportunity to shape the young minds and to show them that the success can only come through hard work and strong will. This job gave me a lot of satisfaction because of my great love for children and my great desire to help them on their way of becoming successful and productive members of our society.

From 2007 I’m active member of the NGO “Transparency - Zero Tolerance” partner of the Transparency International. In this period I’ve actively supported the organization in many projects and workshops.

In 2008 I have participated on the Third Annual Conference and General Meeting of IAACA (International Association of Anti-corruption Authorities) held in Kiev, Ukraine.
